

Security risk-analysis of churches in the Netherlands

Security of persons, buildings and collections

Assessing the security of

- persons
- cultural objects (paints, manuscripts etc.)
- elements of the building
- an collection in the interior

Security measures and a response to

- security measures
- location of the collection (structural) measures
- use of fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, fire extinguisher extinguishers
- security systems (alarms)
- emergency evacuation plans
- sufficient lighting (interior and exterior) especially at night
- sufficient appropriate architectural security measures
- other phenomena (lighting, etc.)

Conservation and management of religious heritage

Organize and document the church treasure efficiently and the use of

- an inventory system
- an access control system
- an entry and exit control system
- an inventory system in case of fire or theft
- a museum system of conservation

