

Call for abstracts

FRH Biennial Conference 2023

Deadline: 30 November

FRH is happy to launch the call for abstracts to participate in the Biennial Conference 2023, scheduled to take place in Lund, Sweden, from 20-21 April 2023. The call for abstracts will be open until 30 November.

Themes and subthemes

The overarching theme of the conference is sustainability. FRH Scientific Committee welcomes submissions on abstracts addressing one or more topics relevant to these 4 thematic clusters:

- Economic sustainability: employment, funds, growth, asset management, Real Estate.
- Social sustainability: capacity building, placemaking, education, war/crisis, stakeholder, community participation.
- Environmental Sustainability: climate, building materials, architecture, environment, awareness.
- Spiritual and Cultural Sustainability: cultural expressions, religion, intangible heritage, identity, cultural expressions, faith, intercultural.

Submission guidelines

- Abstracts must have a maximum of 200 words
- They must be English
- They must be submitted as a PDF or Word file
- The deadline is 30 November 2022
- Abstracts must be submitted through the form at the bottom of this page

Selection process

FRH Scientific Committee will screen all submissions and make a selection in December. Authors/presenters will be notified whether they have been successful shortly after. The 20 selected abstracts will be invited to produce a poster for the conference exhibition. The best four abstracts out of these 20 will also be invited to give a 5-minute presentation.

For questions or additional information, please write us a message at members@frh.org

Future for Religious Heritage

67 Rue de Trèves, 1040 Brussels, Belgium
info@frh-europe.org | www.frh-europe.org | Tel: +32 (0) 24 00 77 03
Registered ASBL Belgium No. 839745430

Co-funded by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union

